3. Restrictions on communication and Trading by Insiders

3.1 Communication or procurement of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

- (1) No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- (2) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:

- (i) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company;

(ii) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute UPSI is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of UPSI.

3.2 Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

(1) No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of UPSI:

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following : –

(i) the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between promoters who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

(ii) in the case of non-individual insiders: –

(a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

(b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

(iii) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with the procedure hereinafter specified.

(2) In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information shall be on such connected persons.

4. Internal Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor and Report Trading by Insiders

1. The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board of Directors and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee every quarter all the communication received from Designated persons for the pre-clearances, Trading Plans received and the disclosures made to the stock exchanges.

2. All information shall be handled within the organisation on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations. The code of conduct shall contain norms for appropriate Chinese Wall procedures, and processes for permitting any designated person to "cross the wall".

3. Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role ("designated persons") in the organisation shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

4. Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with these regulations. Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the designated persons. The trading window shall be closed when the compliance officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

5. The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be after Forty-eight hours after the information is made public. The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

6. When the trading window is open, trading by designated persons shall be subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer, if the value of the proposed trades is above Rs. 10,00,000. No designated person shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed.

7. Prior to approving any trades, the compliance officer shall be entitled to seek declaration to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information.

8. The trades that have been pre-cleared shall be executed by the designated employees within a reasonable period, which in any event shall not be more than seven trading days, failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.

9. The designated employee shall not enter into a contra trade for the quantity pre-cleared for a period of not less than 6 months. However the compliance officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the regulations. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.

10. The formats for making applications for pre-clearance, reporting of trades executed, reporting of decisions not to trade after securing pre-clearance, recording of reasons for such decisions and for reporting level of holdings in securities at such intervals as may be determined as being necessary to monitor compliance with these regulations are herewith annexed.

11. The contravention of the code of conduct shall lead to disciplinary actions, including wage freeze, suspension etc., that may be imposed by the Board of Directors or by the Committee if any, constituted by the Board of Directors.

12. In the event the Board of Directors observe any violations of code of conduct, a prompt information about violation should be given to the SEBI.

5. Trading Plan

(1) An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

5.1 Trading plan shall:-

(i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

(ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;

(iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;

(iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

(v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and

(vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

5.2 The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

5.3 The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any UPSI in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

5.4 Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

6. Trading Window and Window Closure

6.1 A notional trading window as specified herein below shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the Designated Persons:

i) The trading period, during which trading on Stock exchanges is permitted as hereinafter provided is called 'trading window'.

ii) The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 days prior to and during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is published.

iii) When the trading window is closed, the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in the Company's securities in such period.

iv) All Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred to in Point No. (ii) above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

6.2 The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the Designated Persons of the Company when he/she determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

6.3 The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, which shall be forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

6.4 The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

7. Pre-clearance of Trades

All Designated Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is open and if the value of the proposed trades is above Rs. 10 Lakhs (market value), should obtain pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer for each transaction. However, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade. The pre-clearance procedure shall be as hereunder:

- i) An application may be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure 1) to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Designated Person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by the Compliance Officer in that behalf.

- ii) A Declaration (as per Annexure 2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Designated Person incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
 - a) That the employee/Director/Officer does not have any access or is not in possession of 'Price Sensitive Information' up to the time of signing of the Declaration.
 - b) That in case the Designated Employee has access to receive 'Price Sensitive Information' after the signing of the Declaration but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall forthwith inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she shall refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public and after a lapse of 48 hours thereof.
 - c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- iii) Before granting pre-clearance in form (Annexure 3), the Compliance Officer shall have due regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- iv) All Specified/Designated Persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven trading days from the date of the approval of pre-clearance. The Specified/Designated Persons shall file within two days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal and changes in the holdings, with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form (Annexure 4). In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed (Annexure 4).
- v) If the order is not executed within seven trading days from the date of approval is given, the employee/Director must seek fresh pre-clearance of the transaction.
- vi) All Specified/Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction (shall not execute a contra trade) i.e., sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Specified/Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. In case any contra trade is executed inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

- vii) The Compliance Officer may lift the ban on contra trade in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the trading window is closed.

8. Disclosures of Trading by Insiders

8.1 The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.

8.2 The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities, if any permitted by law and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.

8.3 The disclosures made under this Clause shall be maintained by the Company for a minimum period of five years, in such form as may be specified by SEBI.

8.4 Initial Disclosure

(a). Every promoter, key managerial personnel and director of the company shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of these regulations taking effect, to the Company within thirty days of these regulations taking effect;

(b). Every person on appointment as a key managerial personnel or a Director of the Company or upon becoming a promoter shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter.

8.5 Continual Disclosures

(a) Every promoter, employee and Director of the company shall disclose to the Company the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees or such other value as may be specified;

(b) The company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

Explanation. — It is clarified for the avoidance of doubts that the disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure under this sub-regulation, shall be made when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold specified in clause 8.5(a)

8.6 Disclosures by other connected persons

The Company may, at its discretion require any other connected person or class of connected persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in securities of the Company in such form and at such frequency as may be determined by the Company in order to monitor compliance with these regulations.

8.7 All Designated Persons shall disclose their holdings including their immediate relatives at the end of each quarter (Annexure 5)

9 Penalty for contravention of the code of conduct

9.1 Every Specified/Designated Person/Insider shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Code (including to the extent the provisions hereof applicable to his/her immediate relatives).

9.2 Any Specified/Designated Person/Insider who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities, in contravention of this Code may be penalised and appropriate action may be taken by the Board of Directors of the Company.

9.3 Specified/Designated Person/Insider who violate the Code shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Board of Directors of the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension etc.

9.4 The action by the Company shall be in addition to any action that may be taken by SEBI in case of violation of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

9.5 In case if it is observed by the Board of Directors that there has been a violation of SEBI Regulations, they shall inform SEBI promptly.

10. Prohibition of Insider Trading under Companies Act, 2013

The relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 which every person shall comply with is as under:

Section 195(1) No person including any director or key managerial personnel of a Company shall enter into insider trading:
